Only the registration forms of the Leipziger Messe GmbH are to be used for paper-based registration. These forms are to be completely filled out and stamped, if possible, with the company stamp, signed by hand in a legally binding fashion, and sent to the Leipziger Messe GmbH in written form (letter, fax, or email).

5.3 It must be made clear if the registration is being undertaken by the exhibitor or on the exhibitor's behalf. If not otherwise indicated, the registration will be understood to be for the exhibitor named in the registration.

If the registration is undertaken by a third party (hereinafter referred to as Agency), the registration shall be attributed to the Agency. The Agency shall be obligated to inform the exhibitor of all contractual duties and obligations. The Agency shall remain responsible to the Leipziger Messe GmbH for the fulfillment of all duties and obligations of the exhibitor arising from this contract. The exhibitor is in such a case the vicarious agent of the agency. The Agency shall be responsible for any actions taken or statements made by the exhibitor or any person authorized by the exhibitor as if the Agency itself had taken the actions or made the statements.

5.4 Registration forms submitted with conditions or reservations shall not be considered. Requests for certain spaces, which will be considered if possible, shall not represent conditions for participation. No exclusion of competition shall be allowed. No protection from competition shall be granted.

5.5 Upon sending the signed registration, the exhibitor acknowledges the General and Special Terms and Conditions of Participation, the valid price list and the Technical Guidelines. The above-mentioned documents shall be sent to the exhibitor. 5.6 The exhibitor shall be liable for consequences arising through the inaccurate, incomplete or incorrect completion of the registration form.

5.7 In the terms of these Terms and Conditions of Participation, the exhibitor shall be the individual or company named on the binding registration form. The exhibitor may not effectively limit the powers of representation of the representatives it appointed vis-à-vis the Leipziger Messe GmbH.

6. Admission; Trade Fair Lease Agreement

6.1 The exhibitor shall be informed of the admission or non-admission in written form in due time prior to the start of the trade fair. Admission shall be non-transferable. There shall furthermore be no legal claim to admission. There shall in particular be no claim to admission in the event the Leipziger Messe GmbH or one of its subsidiaries has outstanding claims against the exhibitor, a co-exhibitor, or an Agency authorized by the exhibitor.

6.3 The Leipziger Messe GmbH shall be entitled to withdraw from the Agreement and demand damage compensation in the event admission was granted on the basis of false premises or information or the requirements for admission are eliminated at a later date or if the exhibitor is in default in payment on the date of the rescission declaration.

7.1.2 Within the framework of planning, the Leipziger Messe GmbH shall be entitled to assign a space which differs from the ordered space as long as such is absolutely necessary and can be reasonably expected of the exhibitor. The difference shall be

The exhibitor shall be obligated to observe the condition and bearing capacity of the floor (to be found in No. 3 of the Technical Guidelines; Internet: www.leipziger-messe.com/order). The exhibitor shall assume unlimited liability for the breach of such obligation.

7.2 Design of Stand

7.2.1 The construction and design of the stand must conform to Technical Guidelines (Internet: www.leipziger-messe.com/order) of the Leipziger Messe GmbH. The applicable legal and administrative provisions shall be binding on the exhibitors and each stand construction company. In the event of any breaches, the Leipziger Messe GmbH shall be entitled to have modifications carried out at the expense of the exhibitor and block the stand. The exhibitor shall be solely responsible for its constructed trade fair stand and the use there- of not leading to the damage of life or personal health.

The exhibitor or a company commissioned by the exhibitor may first begin setting up the trade fair stand after it has obtained a written permit to setup the stand from the Leipziger Messe GmbH.

7.2.2 The respective hours for setting up and breaking down stands can be found in the Special Terms and Conditions of Participation.

7.3 Attendance Obligation

7.3.1 The Leipziger Messe GmbH shall be entitled to dispose of the stand otherwise if setup has not been started prior to 10 a.m. on the day prior to the opening of the trade fair.

7.3.2 The exhibitor shall be obligated to occupy the stand and staff it with personnel during all trade fair hours. 8. Terms and Conditions of Payment

8.1 The Leipziger Messe GmbH shall issue invoices regarding the rent of the stands or any other performances or deliveries upon or after the admission, which shall be due for payment 14 days after the invoice date. 8.6 In the event the exhibitor is a merchant, the exercising of a right to refuse performance or a retention right or the set-off of claims of the Leipziger Messe GmbH shall be excluded, unless the claim of the exhibitor has been recognized by a non-appealable decision or is uncontested. Setting off such claims against equivalent or future claims of the Leipziger Messe GmbH and the execution of rights of retention by the Exhibitor which are not based on this contractual relation shall be impermissible in any case.

9. Co-Exhibitors and Additionally Represented Companies

9.1 The exhibitor shall not be entitled to sublease or otherwise permit the use of the stand assigned to it by third parties or advertise for third parties at the stand without the prior approval of the Leipziger Messe GmbH.

9.2 The use of the leased space by companies, their own personnel and with their own products (co-exhibitors) or merely with their own products (additional companies represented) must be described separately in the registration. Companies shall then be considered co-exhibitors or additionally represented companies in the event they have close financial and organizational ties to the main exhibitor.

Admission can be denied under the same circumstances that an exhibitor may be denied. Such companies shall be considered to be admitted if the separate registration has not been expressly rejected.

The exhibitor must pay a fee for each co-exhibitor and each additionally represented company, which can be found on the registration form or the price list.

The exhibitor is liable for all co-exhibitors it has registered and firms it additionally represents. This also applies, but not exclusively, to their duty of payment towards Leipziger Messe.

Companies with joint exhibitions are to specify a joint representative upon registration.

9.5 The Leipziger Messe GmbH shall be entitled to include the majority shareholder of an exhibitor which registered for

The exhibitor shall, however, be obligated to pay the contributions pursuant to No. 10.2 in full, if and insofar as there are non-leased exhibition spaces in the exhibition area during the event which could have been used by the sublessee, had the exhibitor participated in the event in accordance with the agreement, and the subsequent leasing takes place in order to maintain the total visual picture.

10.4 In the event a petition is filed to initiate insolvency proceedings regarding the assets of the exhibitor or such a petition is rejected due to lack of assets, the Leipziger Messe GmbH shall be entitled to terminate the agreement without notice. The exhibitor shall inform the Leipziger Messe GmbH of the filing of a petition for insolvency proceedings without delay in any case. Nos. 10.1 through 10.3 above shall apply accordingly hereto.

11. Products

11.1 Only those goods or services belonging to the respective product range may be placed on exhibition. The Leipziger Messe GmbH may remove non-admitted goods at the expense of the exhibitor after futile warning. The exhibitor may not assert any claims against the Leipziger Messe GmbH if the Leipziger Messe GmbH acts at variance with the above provision.

11.2 The exhibitor may not sell, directly hand over or otherwise remove exhibits at the trade center stands during the event. In the event of an infringement, the Leipziger Messe GmbH may close the stand during the event (blocked stand) and / or ban the exhibitor from participating in future trade fairs.

11.3 When operating its stand, the exhibitor must observe the applicable legal provisions as amended (e. g. Act Governing Restaurants, Industrial Code, hygiene provisions, Act on Food Products and Articles of Daily Use, Regulation on Bar Facilities). In the event the exhibitor does not fulfill its cleaning and disposal obligation regarding the sale or giving away of food and beverages at its stand after a warning, the Leipziger Messe GmbH shall be entitled to have the stand or sales facility closed.

11.4 The provisions of the Act on Technical Equipment and Consumer Products (Equipment and Product Safety Act as amended) are to be followed. As proof, the exhibitor must keep the following documents at the stand:

12.3 Installations may also be performed within the stand by specialist companies which are to be specified to the Leipziger Messe GmbH upon request. The Leipziger Messe GmbH shall be entitled but not obligated to control such installations. The exhibitor shall be liable for any damage caused by the installation.

12.4 Consumption costs, installation costs and any other services shall be calculated separately. Service orders are to be initiated using the corresponding OSC forms.

12.5 Connections, machines and devices which do not possess the necessary technical admission, conform to the applicable provisions, or whose consumption is higher than registered, may be removed at the expense of the exhibitor. The exhibitor shall be liable for damage caused by the uncontrolled withdrawal of energy.

12.6 Complaints regarding the technical services are to be reported without delay.

12.7 In the event the exhibitor is provided items by the Leipziger Messe GmbH or its service partners on for lease or lending, the exhibitor shall be responsible for the careful treatment, professional operation and complete return of the items free of damage. 13. Exhibitor Passes

13.1 The trade fair grounds may only be accessed with a non-transferable exhibitor pass issued by the Leipziger Messe GmbH. The Leipziger Messe GmbH shall be entitled to collect passes without providing a replacement in the event of a breach of these Terms and Conditions of Participation.

In the event the Leipziger Messe GmbH accepts such packages by exception (e.g. because the addressee is absent upon the delivery of the shipment), the exhibitor shall not owe a charge for the safeguarding of the shipment by the Leipziger Messe GmbH. The Leipziger Messe GmbH shall, however, not be liable for the loss or damage of a shipment or components thereof, unless the Leipziger Messe GmbH is responsible for intentional damage to such shipments. The exhibitor shall be obligated to pick up the respective shipment from the Leipziger Messe GmbH at its own expense.

Any liability of The Leipziger Messe GmbH vis-à-vis the exhibitor for shipments not picked up, incorrect shipments or shipments incompletely addressed shall be excluded hereby. This shall also apply in the event the Leipziger Messe GmbH refuses to accept any otherwise undeliverable shipments.

20. Liability

20.1 The exhibitor shall be liable for all damage arising through its participation in the Leipziger Messe GmbH. The exhibitor's own fault shall be equated with that of its vicarious agents, employees and agents. It is recommended that the exhibitor take out

- e) the content and functions of those websites linked to its Internet website whose content is not determined by the Leipziger Messe GmbH, or for any losses which could arise through the use of such websites.

21. Reservation of Rights

21.1 Cancellation, Interruption, Postponement, Closure of the Event

21.1.1 In justified circumstances, the Leipziger Messe GmbH has the right to postpone, relocate, shorten, cancel, temporarily interrupt, partially close, or cancel the event. A situation justifying such an action exists if there are sufficient indications that holding the scheduled event or continuing to hold the event can lead to a concrete threat to life and limb or to material damage of substantial value.

21.1.2 The Leipziger Messe GmbH is also entitled to the rights listed under 21.1.1 if, due to force majeure (e.g. government measures, urgent regulatory recommendation or advice, labor disputes, acts of terror or other dangers to life and limb, natural events or catastrophes), the smooth conduction of the event is compromised or threatened to such a degree that the intended purpose of the event cannot be met for the exhibitors, visitors or the Leipziger Messe GmbH, or can only be met with considerable restrictions.

21.1.3 The Leipziger Messe GmbH shall make this decision in accordance with 21.1.1 and 21.1.2 in its function as event organizer and proprietor of the trade fair grounds and its infrastructure according to its due assessment. In reaching the decision, the interests of all affected trade fair participants (especially exhibitors, visitors, conference participants, speakers, sponsors, etc.), the purpose of the event and the necessary safety considerations must be taken into account.

21.2 Legal Consequences of Actions taken in pursuance with 21.1

21.2.1 In the case of total cancellation prior to the start of the event, the exhibitor shall be obligated to pay an adequate amount to be determined by the Leipziger Messe GmbH using equitable discretion, but not exceeding 15% of the participation price for general reimbursement of costs. The participation price relevant for the calculation shall be comprised of the rent for the booth, the fixed media fee, and includes booth packages, if any have been booked. The prices are based on 4.1. The Leipziger Messe GmbH shall be released from its contractual obligation to perform beginning with the moment in time the cancellation is made.

21.2.2 In the case of a postponement or relocation or a shortening of the event prior to its start, the signed contract regarding trade fair participation shall apply to the new event location or time period as long as the exhibitor does not immediately object in writing to the Leipziger Messe GmbH, at the latest two weeks after receiving communication of the change. If an objection is made, the exhibitor shall pay a cost amount of up to 15 % of the participation price in accordance with 21.1.2

21.2.3 In the case of early cancellation (cancellation, shortening), temporary interruption or a partial closure after the start of an event, or in the case of a delayed start, the exhibitor shall be obligated to participate in the non-cancelled part of the event and to pay the full participation price. The Leipziger Messe GmbH shall proportionately reimburse the exhibitor for the costs that are not incurred as a consequence of the cancellation or partial closure (saved costs or costs not incurred).

21.3 Cancellation of the Event for Economic Reasons

The Leipziger Messe GmbH has the right to distance itself from the conduction of the event at its own discretion and with regard for the justified interests of the trade fair participants if the economic feasibility cannot be realized or the status of registrations indicates that a sufficient representation of the industry aimed for by the event cannot be guaranteed. With the cancellation all mutual and reciprocal obligations to perform shall fall away for both contractual partners. The Leipziger Messe GmbH shall be obligated to reimburse any payments which have already been made by the exhibitor if the service paid for has not already been performed at the time of the cancellation. No claims asserted by the exhibitor for reimbursement of payments already made in connection with his participation in the event or for damage compensation can result from the cancellation.

22. Protection of Industrial Property

The protection of inventions, models and trademarks at trade fairs shall be construed in accordance with the legal provisions of the Federal Republic of Germany. No special protection for trade fairs shall exist. Patent registrations are to be submitted to the patent office prior to the start of the trade fair. At the request of the exhibitor, the Leipziger Messe GmbH shall issue a confirmation that goods or services were provided for viewing subject to certain trademarks or models. No liability on the part of the Leipziger Messe GmbH for any registrability or exhibition priority shall be associated therewith.

23. Contractual Penalty

In the event that an exhibitor breaches one of the duties specified under No. 7.1.5 (exchange of trade fair space), 7.3.2 (obligation to attend), 11.1 (exhibition of non-admitted goods), 11.2 (sales ban), 12.2 (third-party suppliers), 12.5 (non-compliant technical equipment), 18.1, 18.2 (non-compliant advertising) or 19.1 (non-compliant music equipment), it shall pay a contractual penalty of 2 % of the total rent, though a total of a maximum of 20 % of the total rent for each breach, or, insofar as the breach of duties endures, for each started hour of the breach of duty.

24. Data Protection

The personal data collected on or from the exhibitor may be used to fulfill the business purposes of the Leipziger Messe GmbH within the scope permitted by data protection law. The Leipziger Messe GmbH, its affiliated businesses and foreign representatives are also entitled to use this personal data to regularly inform about services provided by the Leipziger Messe GmbH, its affiliated businesses and foreign representatives via letter, email, telephone or fax. A list of these businesses and foreign representatives, who are located in part outside the European Union (EU) and the European Economic Area (EEA), is available on the Internet: <http://www.leipziger-messe.de/unternehmen/kontakt/auslandsvertretungen/>.

The exhibitor must ensure that the prerequisites for data privacy are met for the aforementioned uses through suitable measures (e.g. written consents by his employees).

The exhibitor is liable to the Leipziger Messe GmbH for damage and expenses that arise from the breach of this duty and shall indemnify the Leipziger Messe GmbH against related third party claims upon the first request to do so.

25. Final Provisions

25.1 All agreements, approvals and verbal collateral agreements must be made in written form. This shall also apply to any modification of the previous sentence.

25.2 The Leipziger Messe GmbH shall exercise its domestic authority in the entire exhibition area for the setup, operation and dismantling period of the event. Animals may not be brought onto the trade fair grounds.

25.3 Contractual claims of the exhibitor against the Leipziger Messe GmbH shall lapse within 12 months. The period of limitation shall cease in the month the trade fair is closed. Claims due to the intentional breach of contract shall be subject to the limitation periods established by law.

Compensation claims of the Leipziger Messe GmbH due to changes or deterioration in the leased object shall expire one
